

This information is not the official version of the Official Compilation of the Rules and Regulations of the State of New York (NYCRR). No representation is made as to its accuracy, nor may it be used as an official business record of the New York State Department of Public Service. To ensure accuracy and for evidentiary purposes, reference should be made to the official NYCRR. The Official NYCRR is available from West Publishing: 1-800-344-5009.

§ 646.1 Regulations applicable

All provisions of Parts 600-646 of this Title shall be applicable to radio-telephone utilities with the exception of Parts 601, 602, 603, 604, 640 and 641 and section 644.3.

§ 646.2 Free trial service

Due to the nature of the service provided by radio-telephone utilities and the number of variables which may affect the usefulness of the service to particular subscribers, notwithstanding the provisions of section 601.1 of this Title, radio-telephone utilities, and other telephone corporations providing radio-telephone service, may provide radio-telephone service free of charge for a five-day trial period during which the subscriber may gauge the usefulness of the service to his particular circumstances. The trial service may be provided to a prospective subscriber once during any two-year period.