Brief Explanation: NY allows ESCOs to “reinstate” accounts using an 814D Request. To clarify rejection reasons an additional reject code is needed.

Detail Explanation: If an ESCO attempts to reinstate an account using a CHA 814D Request and the reinstatement period has expired a utility may use the Reject Code (REF*7G) A96 – Reinstatement Period Expired in the 814D Rejection sent to the ESCO. This code is currently being used in 814R Rejections.
