

This information is not the official version of the Official Compilation of the Rules and Regulations of the State of New York (NYCRR). No representation is made as to its accuracy, nor may it be used as an official business record of the New York State Department of Public Service. To ensure accuracy and for evidentiary purposes, reference should be made to the official NYCRR. The Official NYCRR is available from West Publishing: 1-800-344-5009.

§ 504.1 Notice

Any customer may discontinue water service by giving written notice to the company, said notice to be in accordance with the schedule of the company filed with the Public Service Commission, which shall provide for not more than 30 days' notice of said discontinuance.

§ 504.2 Liability to cease

All liability for charges for service rendered after the discontinuance of service as herein provided for shall cease.

§ 504.3 Refund of advance payment

Upon the discontinuance of service, as herein provided for, the company shall promptly refund to the customer the pro rata amount of every advance payment for any service after said discontinuance, said refund to be based upon the relation of the period after the discontinuance of service to the entire period for which said advance payment was made, after deducting the proper charge for any water consumed.

§ 504.4 Classes of service not affected

The above sections as to notice of discontinuance of service and refunds for advance payments do not apply to the following classes of service when such services are the only ones rendered:

- (a) seasonal occupancy;
- (b) private fire protection;
- (c) air conditioning or refrigeration.